

CAMBRIDGE SCHOOL

Srinivasapuri

SYLLABUS FOR HALF YEARLY EXAMINATION SESSION- 2026-27 CLASS VIII

| SUBJECT        | SYLLABUS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|----------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| English        | SECTION A (Reading): Reading ComprehensionSECTION B (Writing): Descriptive Paragraph Writing, Formal Letter Writing, Notice WritingSECTION C (Grammar): Parts of Speech, finite and non- finite verbs, Determiners, Tenses, Subject Verb Agreement, Phrases and ClausesSECTION D (Literature): Attila, The Open Window, O Captain! My Captain!, The Beggar, Lines Written In Early Spring, A Day's Wait |
| Hindi          | मल्हार - दो गौरैया, एक आशीर्वाद (कविता), हरिद्वार, कबीर के दोहे ।व्याकरण - शब्द विचार, समास- द्वंद्व समास, द्विगु समासपर्यायवाची शब्द, विलोम शब्द, मुहावरे ।पठन - अपठित गद्यांशलेखन - पत्र लेखन (अनौपचारिक पत्र)अनुच्छेद लेखनसंवाद लेखनचित्र वर्णन                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Mathematics    | Chapter - 1 A Square and a CubeChapter - 2 Power PlayChapter - 3 A Story of NumbersChapter - 4 QuadrilateralsChapter - 5 Number PlayChapter - 6 We Distribute, Yet Things MultiplyChapter - 7 Proportional Reasoning - I                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Science        | Chapter - 2 The invisible living world: Beyond our naked eyesChapter - 4 Electricity: Magnetic and heating effectsChapter - 5 Exploring forcesChapter - 6 Pressure, Winds, storms and cyclonesChapter - 7 Particulate nature of matter                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Social Science | Chapter - 1 Natural Resources and their usesChapter - 2 Reshaping India's Political Map Rise and fall of Delhi                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |

CAMBRIDGE SCHOOL

Srinivasapuri

|                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|-----------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                 | Sultanate (excluding Hoysalas and Bahmani Sultanate) <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>Vijayanagara Empire</li><li>Mughals</li><li>Resistance to the Mughals (sub topics included are -Surge of the Rajput's and The Rise of the Sikhs)</li><li>Administering India</li><li>People's Lives</li></ol> Chapter - 5 Universal Franchise and India'sElectoral System- page no 118 to 125 Chapter - 7 Factors of Production Map Work- On the political outline map of India Mark the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>First organic state of India- Sikkim</li><li>State facing water scarcity due to the impact of greenrevolution- Punjab</li><li>Distribution of minerals:<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>Digboi- First oil field of India</li><li>Mumbai High- Largest oil field of India</li><li>A state having a good scope of tapping Solar energy-Rajasthan</li><li>Bauxite reserve in Madhya Pradesh- Katni</li><li>Coal mines- Neyveli in Tamil Nadu, Jharia in Jharkhand</li><li>Iron Ore reserves – Durg in Chhattisgarh, Chandrapur in Maharashtraand Kudremukh in Karnataka</li></ol></li><li>Daulatabad- Second capital of Muhammad Bin Tughlaq</li><li>Konark- Surya Temple in Odisha</li><li>Bijapur- An important state of Deccan Sultanates</li><li>Agra- House of translation established by Akbar</li></ol> |
| Sanskrit | दीपकम् – द्वितीयः पाठः- अल्पानामपि वस्तुनां संहतिः कार्यसाधिकातृतीयः पाठः - सुभाषितरसं पीत्वा जीवनं सफलं कुरुषष्ठः पाठः - डिजिभारतम् – युगपरिवर्तनम्व्याकरणम् – शब्दरूपाणि- राम, लता, नर।1. सर्वनामशब्दरूपाणि- किम्, तत् (त्रिषु लिङ्गेषु) ।2. धातुरूपाणि- चर् दा, पा, पठ्, गम् लृट् लट् लङ् लकारेषु3. संख्यावाची शब्दाः- 31- 504. चित्र वर्णनम्5. प्रत्ययः -क्त्वा, ल्यप्।6 अपठितगद्यांश                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |

He Khan